Catholics and Jews: more good news

A Reflection on Catholic-Jewish Relations on the occasion of the 50th Anniversary of the Vatican II document "Nostra Aetate (in our time)" and the recent statement of the Vatican on Jewish relations "The Gifts and the Calling of God are Irrevocable."

Featuring

Rev. Dr. Elias D. Mallon, SA, PhD, is an ordained member of the Franciscan Friars of the Atonement (Graymoor). He obtained a licentiate degree (STL) in Old Testament studies and a PhD in Middle Eastern languages from the Catholic University of America. He has worked for the then Vatican Secretariat for Promoting Christian Unity (now Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity) as its faculty representative at the Institut Œcuménique of the World Council of Churches in Bossey, Switzerland. At present Elias is the Education and Interreligious Affairs Officer at the Catholic Near East Welfare Association, where among other things he represents the Association at the UN.

Prof. David Novak received his AB from the University of Chicago, and from the Jewish Theological Seminary of America he received his MHL (Master of Hebrew Literature) and his rabbinical diploma. He received his PhD in philosophy from Georgetown University. Since 1997 Dr. Novak holds the J. Richard and Dorothy Shiff Chair of Jewish Studies as Professor of Religion and Philosophy in the University of Toronto. David Novak is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada (FRSC), and a Fellow of the American Academy for Jewish Research. He is a founder and member of the Board of Directors of the Institute on Religion and Public Life, and a member of the Advisory Board of its monthly journal First Things.
